

Throughout the centuries, most religious movements, which started in a small way, developed into powerful forces because of dedicated and forceful leadership. These movements continued to expand as long as leaders of vision and dedication were at the helm. They prospered because of Christ-like leadership! When leaders become proud and self-sufficient, the churches stagnated. They lost their influence and power. They lost their vision when the leaders lost theirs. Jesus the Leader explores the leadership qualities of Jesus Christ, qualities that revealed Christ to be the most effective and most powerful Leader the world has ever known. If the leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church apply the principles of Christ's leadership in their own lives, the church will prosper. The principles of Christ cannot fail.

Last week we began looking at Jesus' leadership by examining just one characteristic, Servant Leadership. Our text was Philippians 2. Jesus was a man, but He was still God. He didn't lose His power, but He willingly chose not to use certain aspects of His power while on earth.

All professing Christians agree that a Christian leader should be a servant leader . Jesus couldn't be clearer: "The kings of the Gentiles exercise. Jesus the Humble Leader. Andrew Gordon-Brown. A Talk on Good Friday at the Stonyhurst Easter Retreat Christ's death in a leadership context. Robert K. Jesus is not a typical leader. He didn't come to earth the first time to rule in might and power, although He could have. No, He first came as a

To many, Jesus is the greatest leader that ever lived"His very life an example of how we are to model His leadership qualities. Let's take a look at what it means. Do you think of Jesus as a leader? If so, what things come to mind? Here are at least 6 traits of his to observe and add into your leadership.

Jesus Christ is the greatest Apex Leader who has ever lived. Regardless of your religious affiliation, even the most reasonable person. Articles and books proliferate extolling the virtues of leadership exemplified in Jesus of Nazareth. The theme often stated, implicitly if not explicitly, is that this. Christian leadership in the church needs to be modelled on Jesus who exemplified servant leadership as he grew and developed the disciples. The principles, however, which I admire most are found in the leadership style of Jesus. Jesus' leadership is still impacting culture today.
