

Excerpt from Only for Jesus: Memorials of the Late William M. Macgregor, Missionary to China This little Memoir is published in the belief that, with the blessing of Gods Spirit, it is fitted to do good. What is lacking in stirring incident, will, it is hoped, be considered more than compensated for by the whole-hearted consecration and missionary zeal that breathe throughout the life recorded. It has been attempted, as far as possible, to make the subject of the book relate his own story, and express his own sentiments, the authors duty being mainly that of presenting, in a connected form, the materials at his disposal. Whatever profits may be realised on this edition will be handed to Mrs. Macgregor, the widowed mother of the young missionary. Dingwall, August, 1888. Preface to Second Edition. Only for Jesus has met with a gratifying reception, the First Edition having been sold out in two months. The Second Edition is issued with the prayer that the book may continue to be used by the Holy Spirit. February, 1889.
