

Respect - Founding General, Modern Day Memory! And it's 10 forgotten steps, to help unlock and ignite the true balance of our intentions again! Is a book that explores with wit, dry humor, and in depth understanding. So to help in making the unseen and complicated, more comprehensive through its simplicity. The different levels, of what has not so much been completely lost and forgotten by society nowadays. But more to the point, it seems it has never really been put into any sustaining practice properly through out to date. The methods being talked about with in this book, are ultimately what it is we have all been looking for to understand and implement, with in all of our lives to date. Where these are the methods, that all good teachings do attempt to teach. But for one reason or another, do forget to take into account the human factor of our modern day. With extraordinary clarity and simplicity. Author Paul Humphries shares with you some vital steps on the topic of Respect, that will change your outlook on the world and life forever. As he digs down deep and brings up some relevant, quite matter of fact answers to some extremely important questions, that we all do have in life. Questions involving answers which do actually cover, the many ways that we can all begin to live a life of growth and fulfillment, as we begin to bit by bit alleviate the strains of all our tensions. These are safe, simple, powerful exercises and ideas to help try to get as many people as possible, to begin to overcome the obstacles of the roads ahead. As all whom read can begin to prospectively consider the idea, of living with in greater harmony amongst one another. Respect: the mystical myth of it's power shall be no longer. As anyone whom reads this, reclaim the strengths and the attributes that they were given by right, at the time of their birth.
