

Motoring journalist Ashely Hollebone reveals for the first time the full story behind the hovercraft, a wonderful British invention that was created in a back shed from a rusty baked bean tin and an old hair dryer - simple but remarkable nonetheless! The hovercraft has a multitude of uses across numerous arenas, including leisure cruising and Formula 1 racing; it has modernised travel and saved many lives - boasting zero fatalities in accidents - yet despite all this, little has been written about this most humble craft. This book decisively redresses the balance and with a detailed potted history comprehensively reveals the story behind the hovercraft, an invaluable addition to every enthusiasts library.
