

Discovering she is a Tuatha De Danann straight from Irish Mythology, turns Megan's life upside down. As if that was not enough, an arrogant, drop-dead gorgeous man tells her she is his mate. Seamus escaped his mysterious captors seventeen years earlier, taking a little girl with him and returning her to her home. Returning to the one location he considers his safe haven, he recognizes Megan as the young child he rescued. Only now, she is stunning enough to make him forget, almost, just how treacherous his life is. Megan soon realizes fighting her attraction for Seamus is a losing battle. But when the people hunting Seamus track them down, Megan and Seamus are faced with a much more immediate and deadly threat—a struggle for the lives of all the Tuatha De Danann. Can they overcome their pursuers and win?
